

Biography

Matthew P. LoPiccolo | Vice President, Customer Service and Supply Chain

- Vice President, Customer Service and Supply Chain, Swagelok Company (2015–present)
- Responsible for Swagelok Company’s supply chain planning, capacity and inventory management, customer and technical service as well as data management and analytics.
- Professional Experience:
 - Vice President, Information Services and Chief Information Officer (2007-2015)
 - President Swagelok Foundation (2013–2014)
 - Sponsor for Emerging Professionals (2014–present)
 - Director, Customer Solutions (2006–2007)
 - Director, Order Fulfillment Program (2004–2006)
 - Director, Customer Service & Logistics (2002–2006)
 - Director, Distribution & Logistics (2000–2002)
 - Director, I.S. Operations (1999–2000)
 - Systems Development Manager (1997–1999)
 - Systems and Service Manager (1995–1997)
 - Systems Development Supervisor (1995)
 - Operations Supervisor (1991–1994)
 - Systems Programmer/Analyst (1985–1991)
- M.B.A., Baldwin-Wallace College (2000)
- Baldwin Wallace College Business School Honor Society
- B.S. Computer Science, John Carroll University (1985)
- Project Management Professional Certification, Project Management Institute (1999–present)
- Recipient of Kerzner Award for Project Management Excellence
- Member of Board of Trustees, Marymount Health Care Systems
 - Vice Chair
 - Chair, Strategic Planning Committee
- Member of Program Advisory Board, Trinity High School Pre-Professional Internship Program
- Board of Directors Cleveland Zoological Society
- Recipient of Crain’s Cleveland Terabyte Award for Distinguished Career in Information Services